

NAUTICAL NIGHTS AT BATTLESHIP COVE

Snoop below deck, explore vintage military hardware and relive the US Armed Forces' amazing odyssey from World War II through the Cold War.

Spend a night on board a WWII battleship or destroyer as you follow in the footsteps of the brave sailors and Marines who outslugged the enemy in every hemisphere of the globe.

Journey through a time when an alarm to "general quarters" stirred thousands of young men into action!

BOATLOAD OF VALUE

For as little as $55, you get A) Two days paid admission with lodging; B) Dinner and breakfast served on the battleship; C) Feature films shown on board Big Mamie; D) Rotating schedule of knot-tying and Morse Code classes, storytelling and historical reenactments; free souvenir guide. New program activities coming for Fall 2013 & 2014!

WORLD'S LARGEST SHIP EXHIBIT

More than 500,000 campers can't be wrong: There's no place like Battleship Cove! Home of the National PT Boat Museum and the Admiral Arleigh Burke National Destroyermen's Museum, this unique attraction preserves five National Historic Landmark vessels.
